

THE REVIEW

BY JACK & MIZE.

New York did not have a Burchard this year to carry the burden of defeat. The mugwump did it.

It is said that General Phil Sheridan will write a book the coming winter. Just what he will write about is not stated.

Decatur merchants and shippers contented under the exactions of the railroad pool? Any of the little towns around can afford to pay better prices for grain than Decatur.

Mr. Eaton remains on the civil service commission to teach the others their duties. The examiners are nearly all republicans. Will he show the new men how to change this, or will they know this by instinct?

Mr. John Ulrich got home yesterday from New Mexico. He left Mr. Barber at St. Louis, and Messrs. Schroll and Troutman at Las Vegas. They will remain in New Mexico for about a month. Upon reaching Las Vegas Mr. Ulrich learned that the title of the land which he went to look at was not good, so he left immediately for home.

Mr. Charles Harvey, of London, England, arrived in this city on Saturday evening and spent Sunday with his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. James and family, who reside at the corner of Water and Eldorado streets. He has been in this country inspecting mines in Colorado for capitalists of England. Mr. Harvey left Sunday night for Chicago, and from there will go to New York city. He will sail for England on the 14th inst.

Judge Hughes arrived from Mattoon about half past five last evening. He was to have convened court at half past three, but the wreck on the P. D. & E. changed his plane for him. Sheriff Foster adjourned court until half past eight this morning. Judge Hughes grew weary waiting for the track to be cleared in order to allow his train to proceed, and in company with several others walked to this city from Turpin, a distance of four miles. He arrived here an hour ahead of the train, and was none the worse for the walk.

STATUE OF BACCHUS.

A work of Art especially raised from the bed of the Tiber.

The bronze statue found lying in the bed of the Tiber has been successfully raised. This was a work of some difficulty, for it had evidently been lunged into the river head foremost, and was found with the feet uppermost. The workmen first struck the metal plinth, which being hollow, was supposed to be a large bronze plate. But on clearing the sand from below, the men quickly found the feet of the statue. It is a Bacchus, a little under life-size, the head crowned with ivy leaves and berries. The left arm is fixed upward, the hand holding a long vine-crowned thyrsus. The right hangs down, and is extended a little outward. The face is very slightly turned to the right, and the weight of the body rests on the right leg, the left being bent at the knee, with only the ball of the foot and toes touching the ground behind.

The statue is perfect in every respect, with the exception of a clean fracture above the right ankle and the thyrsus is broken into three pieces, which have all been found. It is a work of great beauty; but, as far as it is possible to tell, it is not until the incrustation of sand is removed, and that will not be a difficult task, for it is very loose. The bronze has a beautiful golden tint.

The statue was found in the middle of the river, where the works are going on for sinking the foundations of the middle pier of the bridge which is to connect the new street through the Robins on one side and the Trastevere on the other, near the church of San Crisogono. This spot is but a short distance from the northern extremity of the Island of St. Bartholomew; and as a portion, extending more or less to where the works are proceeding, was washed away during one of the inundations in the middle ages, it is probable that the statue may have been lunged into the river from the northern point of the island, where stood a temple of Faunus.—Cor. London Times.

An Old Slavonic Custom.

The village of Minussinsk, in Russia, has been deeply troubled by the pest among its cows; and the conscript fathers of the community held a meeting to decide upon the best means of putting a stop to the calamity. It was agreed that resort should be had to the old Slavonic custom of "round plowing." The Setel gives an account of the process. Seven virgins, two old women and a young bachelor of good character are elected. At midnight a procession of the peasants is formed, led by the two old women carrying pictures of saints. In the rear of the procession the seven maidens are harnessed to a plow, which is guided by the young man. A light furrow is plowed around the village; and thereby, according to the belief of the local agriculturists, a barrier is provided against the evil spirit which causes the pest; he has no power to pass over the mystical furrow.

The sociable and entertainment committee of the Young Men's Christian association met last evening and arranged for a series of sociables and practical talks, each to be given monthly during the winter. The first sociable will be given Monday evening, November 16th.

There is some dispute as to how bald a man's head must be to entitle him to a front seat this evening. The fellows without any hair at all say that the finest three rows of seats have been reserved, especially by them, and they will resent all encroachments of partially bald men and dudus.

The topic for the meeting this evening at the Y. M. C. A. rooms for the young men is "A Life Without Self in it." Good singing and short talks will make the meeting pleasant, and all young men are cordially invited to attend. There will be songs for young men every evening this week.

Mary M., the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kipp, died last evening at half past eight at the family residence on Clay street. The little girl was ten months old. The funeral will take place from the residence this afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. U. Warrington will conduct the services.

Early Sunday morning Jeff Toler, the fiduciary, was struck by a Wabash freight train while near the fair ground. He was knocked violently to the ground and afterwards picked up by the train men and brought to the city. Two of his ribs were broken, and he was slightly injured in the hip, but he will recover in a few weeks.

John Gannon, who was sent to the penitentiary from here last December for burglary and petit larceny, died the other day and was buried in the prison grave yard. Gannon was caught one night by Officers Hawes and Bailey, while burglarizing Niedermeyer's grocery store on the mound.

The Wabash brakemen have had strict orders to call out the name of each station twice, in a loud and distinct voice. As a general thing a brakeman will open the door of a passenger coach, and call out the name of a station in a manner that would puzzle a man who had lived there all his life, to know what he said.

The corn crop promised well in Clark county until the late rain caused large quantities of it to rot on the stalk. Several farmers in the south part of the county declare that at least half of their corn is ruined, all that comes into the mills has to be picked over. In this country there has been similar complaint, but no serious loss is reported by the farmers.

"The Mikado" has now been witnessed here three times, but as it is early in the season we may get to see it many more times before spring. All the companies on the road seem to feel it their duty to put aside all light operas in favor of the Japanese concert. There is such a thing as the public getting too much of it, although at present it retains all its freshness and beauty.

On Saturday night thieves effected an entrance to the Decatur news stand. They made way with two boxes of cigars and about a dollar in money. A few evenings ago the same place was entered by the thieves with better success. They succeeded on that occasion in securing twenty-five dollars in money and several boxes of cigars. An entrance was gained both times by forcing open a rear door. The police think the same parties did both jobs.

The Presbyterian ladies are making extensive preparations for their Christmas Bazaar, which they will open on the 10th of December. They are making a specialty of Christmas presents in funny works and will have dolls of all sizes and styles. All of the ladies of the church are invited to attend the preliminary meetings as soon as they are announced from the pulpit and they will find an opportunity to give assistance. The next meeting will be at Mrs. John Lytle's, on West William street.

The funeral of Fred Litzner took place yesterday afternoon from the German Lutheran church. The services were conducted by Rev. George Landgraf and were largely attended by the relatives and friends of the deceased. The German Aid Society, of which he was a member, attended in a body, with their flag draped in mourning. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery. Messrs. Conrad Ammann, Wm. Cusick, John Blackney, Frank Myer, Henry Hagen and Fred Dieppa officiated as pall bearers.

The New York World, speaking of Tony Denier's Humpty Dumpty and specialty company, which will appear here to-morrow evening, says:

"Crowded houses and standing room only, has been the rule this week at the Windsor theatre, where Tony Denier's splendid pantomime company is at present playing. On Monday night there were 1064 tickets sold for the top gallery, which is only calculated to seat 850 persons, but they got stowed away in some manner best known to themselves. It is needless to criticise a performance given by Tony Denier, as the public has long since become aware that his entertainments are par excellence, hence the crowds." Prices 35 and 60 cents. Reserved seats, 75 cents.

At half past one o'clock yesterday morning persons passing Wahl's bakery and restaurant on East Eldorado street, observed flames issuing from the rear portion of the building used as a kitchen. The doors were rattled and Mr. Wahl and family who occupied rooms over the restaurant, were aroused. The flames were within a few feet of the family, but they knew nothing of the fact until aroused. An alarm was sent to the fire department, and in a few moments the men were on the ground and extinguished the flames. The cause of fire was a defective pipe, and the damage amounted to about two hundred and fifty dollars. The property is owned by a gentleman named Wood, of Evansville, and was insured.

Those who suffer from loss of appetite, nausea, a head headache will find immediate relief and ultimate cure by using the great tonic and invigorator, Nichols' Bark and Iron. n10d&w1m.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Peoria Transcript is wicked. It says the mugwumps did it.

A nation that pays $13,500,000 of public debt in a month will not be likely to go to smash very soon. Times are a little close, but better times are gradually coming.

The Philadelphia Press pays Gov. Hill the compliment of saying that he is not a daisy, but a whole sunflower patch, with a man named Cleveland to keep the boys off the fence.

One peculiarity of the late political campaign was that no federal officials were on the stump, or prominent in conventions. This is what the people would naturally call reform.

Editor STEAD of the Pall Mall Gazette has been convicted of abduction. He is regarded by the eminent respectable of England as a nuisance instead of a reformer. They prefer to continue in the old way.

Of the 2,000 colored men in subordinate federal position in the country, not two per cent have been removed; of the 1,000 colored employees and clerks in the departments at Washington not one per cent have been removed.

The New York Times, the leading Mugwump paper of the country, cruelly declares that Logan and Foraker did it. Gen. Logan resents it by saying that he made republican speeches, and if he offended republicans, he cannot help it.

Some people are talking and writing very lewdly and asking what the result of the late election means. It is a simple affair. The people have confidence in their form of government no matter which party is in power; it means further, that we are on the eve of an era of general prosperity. Let it come.

The Newark News says: "The attempts in this country to organize young ladies as matrimonial boy-catchers have been in the main directed against dukes and habitual smokers of cigarettes. They were highly commendable, but truth compels the admission that most of them have failed."

HON. JOHN H. STEAD, well known throughout Illinois, has been appointed surveyor-general of Arizona. He was for many years one of the proprietors of the Ottawa Free Trader, was a member of the house of representatives from La Salle county, and again from Cook county, in 1875. He was a candidate for state auditor in 1876 on the democratic ticket. He has been a resident of Arizona for three years. His many friends in Illinois will be pleased to hear of this recognition of a good general, and of one who will make a good officer.

EDITOR STEAD CONVICTED.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—In the case of Mr. Stead, of the Pall Mall Gazette, and others on trial on the charge of having abducted Eliza Armstrong, a little girl, for immoral purposes, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty against Stead and Rebecca Jarrett, and acquitted Booth and Jacques. They agreed that Stead and Mrs. Jarrett took Eliza Armstrong from her father's home against her will, could not agree as to whether Mrs. Jarrett obtained the child by force or by promises. They also agreed that the other defendants had not been held as涉嫌 by the defense, and that Mr. Booth and Mr. Jacques were not parties to the abduction. The Judge deferred passing sentence on the convicted prisoners until after the trial of the indictment for indecent assault against Stead, Jacques, Jarrett and Moullot.

THE RUSSIAN HARVEST.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Russian harvest is above the average for winter wheat, but below for spring wheat. The date, especially in spring wheat, is due to drought. Rye is slightly above the average. The oat crop is bad. Other cereals are inferior. The total wheat production is 30,000,000 quarters which is 20 per cent under the average.

BOTH WENT OVER Niagara FALLS.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Nov. 9.—About 2:30 yesterday afternoon two Germans hired a ten-foot boat from Walker Mingay at Fort Bay, the upper end of American Park Reservation, to row across to Chippewa Cañada. They did not know the danger of crossing at a point so near the falls, about a mile above the brink. When the craft went over the first ledge in the rapids, but a mile above the falls, it capsized, and nothing more was seen of it or its two unfortunate occupants. An hour later the pool below the falls was searched, but no trace was made out, nor was any found. This was the only trace of the victims discoverable. One was Adam Keggenstein, a butcher, who had been in the employ of John Fettsch in this village for a year and a half; the other was a baker known as "August," who worked for William Jasler.

THE NEW EXPOSITION READY TO OPEN.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 9.—The North, Central and South American Exposition will be formally opened Tuesday, November 10. The day will be generally observed here as a holiday. There will be a grand civic and military procession, under command of Major C. B. Throckmorton, United States Army, Grand Marshal. Andrew J. Carnegie, with his son George, Dr. James McMurtry, and Mayor George M. Shaver, Don Matias Romero, the Mexican Minister, and others. The exposition management reports the arrival of complete exhibits from twenty-two States and Territories and portions of the exhibits from other States. The exhibits of Guatemala, San Salvador, Colombia, Honduras, Venezuela and San Domingos are in position in the main building, while others are arriving from Brazil, Chile, Peru and the Argentine Republic.

RIEL LIKELY TO BE FURTHER REPRIVED.

OTTAWA, Canada, Nov. 9.—Whatever the ultimate fate of Riel may be it seems certain that he will not be hanged to-morrow. Prominent men professing to be in the confidence of the Premier, who would like to see the law take its course, admit this much.

FROM ABROAD.

The Balkan Conference Makes No Progress Toward Solving the Roumelian Problem.

Opinions of Delegates as to the Probable Outcome—Meanwhile War Preparations Continue.

THE "PALL MALL GAZETTE'S" EDITOR CONVICTED—The Russian Harvest—Politics in France.

DIPLOMATICS IN COUNCIL.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The sessions of the Balkan Conference were resumed at Constantinople Saturday. The details of the business discussed have not yet been made public, but it is understood that little progress was made, and that of an unsatisfactory nature. It is stated, however, that the Russian Ambassador, M. Neafeloff, has indicated that the Czar will withdraw his demand for the deposition of Prince Alexander, which, if true, materially proves the way to a harmonious discussion of the Roumelian problem.

After the sitting Baron Cuicke, the Austrian Ambassador, expressed the opinion that the Czar would not be induced to withdraw his demand.

EDWARD STEAD of the Pall Mall Gazette has been convicted of abduction. He is regarded by the eminent respectable of England as a nuisance instead of a reformer. They prefer to continue in the old way.

THE NEW YORK TIMES, the leading

Gen. Logan resents it by saying that he made republican speeches, and if he offended republicans, he cannot help it.

Some people are talking and writing very lewdly and asking what the result of the late election means.

It is a simple affair. The people have confidence in their form of government no matter which party is in power; it means further, that we are on the eve of an era of general prosperity. Let it come.

THE NEWARK NEWS says: "The attempts in this country to organize young ladies as matrimonial boy-catchers have been in the main directed against dukes and habitual smokers of cigarettes. They were highly commendable, but truth compels the admission that most of them have failed."

THE WORK OF COWARDS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Mr. Carter, a baker

on 567 Canal street, reported to the police that some one had entered his barn and cut the throats of two horses. One horse was dead and the other barely alive when he found them. The lock on the stable door was broken. Mr. Carter says that he recently opened his bakery, and other bakers in the vicinity tried to drive him away. He has no clue to the perpetrators of the act.
